BY LEAVITT HUNT

In you ravine, with teeming life,
Two thousand lodges use,
The Sloux in camp, but ever life,
The warpath watch, with gun and knife

But now our comrades strike the trail,

Hall' small devoted band ! Three hundred of the Seventh, hall!

Who ever knew a charge to fail
With Custer in command?

Date Custer charge the savage lait

Where duty means to die?
Where duty means to die?
Olives answer quick the trumpet's blare
That sounds his last command in air,
"In column—charge—by company!"

Whom summons this last bugle call

Let fall the rein, the chargers dash

Let rain the rein, the energers dash
Like tigers in a den,
Barred in, they fall 'neath rifie crash,
But failing deal the deadly gash,
They are but one to ten

At eve all lay, by Death enrolled, In ghastly bivouse. Alone Death stailed, the story told

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver." PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the leftside; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder-blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for a rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alterna-tive with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The nest desire to secure the success of the patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a of Mr. Orth may justly regret this unprickly sensation of the skin; his spirits fortunate complication, while those who are low; and although he is satisfied that An excursion train for Chicago will have consured him can afford to susexercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. How to Make Children Amiable. The following hints upon the management of children, which we find in an exchange, are good enough to be read a score of times by every parent, and if the lessons taught should be adopted by fathers and mothers generally, their homes would be much more pleasant than they now are Kind words and ın children

"There is just one way to make children lovely and that is to surround them by day and by night with an atmosphere of love. Restraint and reproof may be started on a trip to the Centennial. In the fall they will find then home and work within the bounds of the Illinois Conference.

A Card —I wish to return thanks to my many patrons for their kind favors and fibural patronage, and in consideration of the stringency of the times I have concluded to reduce the price of boots from the old standard price of $14 down to $11, and all other work in the same proportion. Hoping this will meet the views of the public generally, I solicit a share of their patronage. I also have a superior stock of ready-made boots and shoes, which I will sell at greatly reduced prices. Please call and examine my stock, as you will be sure to be benefitted by so doing
